Concord House

315 N. Mills Street, Madison, WI 53715

Managed by the Student Center Foundation

Description of Concord House: In fulfillment of its non-profit mission, Concord House serves students enrolled in an accredited post-secondary degree or professional certification program who wish to live in a community with high moral standards. By high moral standards we mean a person who is searching for meaning that is bigger than themselves, and refrains from intoxicants, tobacco, illicit drugs, and controlled substances, profanity, obscene language and premarital sex. Because Concord House and its parent organization, the Student Center Foundation, maintain a strong connection to Christian Science churches throughout the region, rooms are offered first to students who are Christian Scientists.
